PLANS . . . It looks as though the science building will be in use by next fall, according to the architect who was down recently. There will be several changes, such as a large model dining room, and many changes in the chemistry department which will make it more usable.

DEBATERS . . . The Torrance Forum, a debating club and one of the most active in school, met recently to elect officers and start things rolling for this semester. The officers are: Betty Follis, president; Harland Johnson, vice-president; Phyllis Hargett, secretary; Virginia Hall, treasurer; Doris Robinette, reporter; and Carol DeBra, parliamentarian. Those appointed were: Eunice Abrahamsen, secretary of membership; Thomas Justice and Bob Lewellen, sergeants-at-arms; and Marcia Rous, historian. The club is looking forward to many panels and inter-scholastic debates.

"JAM" . . . Yesterday the student body had a great treat because the "home talent" put on a "jam session." The swing band, which was organized several years ago, gave out with plenty of real live as well as some sweet swing. Incidentally, the admission was one defense stamp.

DANCE . . . Speaking of defense stamps, the Tartar Knights are sponsoring a dance tomorrow and a big crowd is expected. The admission here, also, will be a defense stamp.

BROADCAST . . . Several Torrance high students with their sponsor, Mrs. Stella Young, enjoyed a radio broadcast Monday which was given by young actors and actresses of Hollywood to promote the sale of defense stamps.

You can be sure the hungry males in your family will wear smiles when they see you preparing one of our super roasts, or broiling some splendid chops that came from

Modern Betsy Ross, Artist in Needlecraft, Makes All Army Flags

Betsy Ross, 1948

The year 1942 marks the 168th anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes, today a battleflag proudly carried by American armed forces in every continent on the globe.

In January, 1777, the American people, slated by General Washington's recent victories at Trenton and Princeton, were seeking an emblem for the new nation. The Congress on June 14 following adopted a resolution providing for a flag of 13 alternate red and white stripes with 13 white stars on a blue field. And then the inspiring story of Betsy Ross who made the first Star-Spangled Banner in her little upholstery shop in Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Today the modern Betsy Ross still sews in Philadelphia—any one of hundreds of women skilled in needlecraft. She piles her art in the Philadelphia Quartermaster Depot where all the flags used by the United States Army are made.

Story of Betsy Ross

Betsy Ross was born January 1, 1752, and died January 30, 1836, but it was not until a third of a century after her death that the legend of her handiwork in the making of the first flag became generally known. One of her descendants, W. J. Canby, related the incident before the Historical Society of Pennsylvania in 1870 and since then she has been exalted as a national heroine.

The modern Betys take keen pride in their work. Many have reached the highest perfection in the art of embroidery, in designing and the blending of colors.

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in our hall on Cravens ave. Red Cross workers will meet with their chairman, Mrs. Jamie Sellers. Hot coffee will be served at noon. Bring your sandwiches. Business matters will be discussed. A supply of materials has arrived.

In the evening at 7:30 o'clock, the usual games will precede old-fashioned dancing, music for which will be furnished by "Frank" and his Pioneer Hill-billy aides.

Last Friday evening brought many surprises even though it was slated as a regular business meeting. It was a pleasing surprise to find an old-time member there from Redondo who had come to join us again, Mrs. May Bowen. Also, from Manhattan came Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner and from Hawthorne two more old-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gelfer, chairman of the 17th Cong. Dist. Council, were also present. Several of the visitors, hunting down "Cherry Pie," gave most timely and interesting talks. There was a spirited election held later to fill a vacancy on the Council of Twelve, Frank Shields winning by a large majority.

Patterson Denies Congress Candidacy

Ellis E. Patterson, lieutenant-governor, in a letter to The Herald this week declared he will not be a candidate for the office of Congressman from the 17th District. "I have no interest, other than that which any citizen must have, in the 17th District Congressional race of 1942," he stated.

Famous Last Words—"Shucks, that's all foolishness about not being able to do 60 on recapped tires!"
